Adventure Experience
HORSEBACK RIDING / FULL DAY
In the Sacred Valley

Known for their docile nature, Peruvian Paso horses offer a comfortable, relaxed way to explore the Land of the Incas.

We leave the stables riding through Rumichaca Baja, a community where we can observe daily life in the communities of the sacred valley, passing the maize fields and the Urubamba River.

From here, the circuit continues towards the gorge of Media Luna, a local settlement of farmers; on a site of abandoned Incan terraces, till we reach the irrigation reservoirs, from where we can gaze on panoramic Valley views. Later through Chajwar, we ascend to Pumahuanca another gorge where its protected zone for native flora give us a perfect place to rest and have lunch.

We then start to descend towards Torrechayoq and continue to the site of Chichubamba. Our return route crosses the villages, passing Larespampa, Palcaraqui till we reach Sol y Luna.

The route could be modified as we proceed, depending on the conditions of the roads, or the interests of our passengers; we could stay longer at certain stops and shorter at others, skip certain places in favor of other places, as requested.
