

PERUVIAN PASO HORSE SHOW

Experiences_Full day

The Peruvian Paso Horse is a unique breed, famed for its four-beat, lateral gait, elegance and gentle temperament.

These horses hold deep historical and cultural significance in Peru and are a much loved and respected breed worldwide, combining the virtues of the Arabic, Berber and Andalusian breeds and descended from the original horses shipped over by the Spanish conquistadors. A show is held daily at Sol y Luna, during which the Peruvian Pasos demonstrate their exquisite movement to the rhythm of the Marinera, a Peruvian dance that encapsulates hispanic equestrian traditions.

Timetable: From 12:00 pm to 3:00 pm over lunchtime, or from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm over dinner

Duration: Approximately 30 minutes

Location: The gardens at the Wayra restaurant at Sol y Luna

Tickets available in advance. This show is not performed during the rainy season.
