

BIKE AND BEER TASTING

E-Bike_Half day

A relaxed excursion through the streets of Ciclovía del Valle Sagrado, past the village of Pacchar and on to the valley's brewery – a perfect mix of exercise, sightseeing, beer tasting and cultural immersion.

Departing from the hotel, this afternoon excursion takes just over three hours, beginning with a journey through the unpaved streets of the neighborhood of Ciclovía del Valle Sagrado. After crossing the Urubamba River you reach the enchanting village of Pacchar, the streets of which are adorned with vibrant street art. The tour concludes with a pit stop at the valley's brewery, just a few hundred meters out of the village.

This is an easy-going afternoon and a great way to combine exercise, sightseeing and beer tasting. Catch an intriguing glimpse into a simple way of life, watching the locals going about their day to day business of harvesting, chicha brewing, corn drying and field plowing.
