

LAGUNA HUMANTAY

HIKE_Full day

From the village of Soraypampa, this picturesque route winds through woodlands and prairies to a 4200m viewpoint overlooking the mesmerizing emerald waters of Humantay Lake.

A three hour car ride from the hotel, but well worth the drive for the prize that awaits. The hike begins in the village of Soraypampa, a path leading through Queñua woodland and open prairies to culminate in a viewpoint 4,200 meters above sea level with arresting views over mountain lagoon Humantay Lake.

A hidden gem of Peru's highland region, the shimmering, emerald green waters of Humantay Lake are positioned between two peaks – the Salkantay Peak and the Humantay Mountain. This is a straightforward hike suitable for most abilities with tantalizing photo opportunities at every turn.
